Do you want a tight, toned, body and sizzling sexy rock hard abs like these? Then stop struggling trying to get results the hard way and start working out the smart way.

That's right. With Wonder Core Smart.

Wonder Core Smart is the revolutionary new fitness breakthrough designed to target your entire core, focusing your workout like a laser on your upper, middle, lower abs, and obliques.

The secret is Wonder Core Smart's dual resistance design that works out your abs in both directions, giving you twice the workout with each and every rep.

There's also an adjustable knob and new resistance meter so you can dial in exactly the kind of workout that you're looking for.

But it doesn't stop there because not only does Wonder Core Smart target your entire core, it targets your entire body, giving you six amazing exercises, plus cardio for the ultimate total body calorie-blasting workout.

Just look at every day people just like you who got incredible results with Wonder Core Smart.

Testimonials

Woman 1

"Not only have I gotten great results but it's so much fun to use."

Woman 2

"It's such a compact machine and yet I was able to work out my arms, my legs, my core. And the next day I was sore. I didn't realise I was getting such a workout."
